„And whoever lives and believes in me shall never die” (J 11,26)

November is approaching - a month dedicated to remembering and praying for our Deceased. The celebration of All Saints Day and All Souls Day remind us that our prayers should embrace all the faithful departed who fulfilled their earthly sojourn, some early in life and others in the autumn of life. Usually, these are people we knew and loved: father, mother, grandmother, grandfather, child, brother, sister, cousin, aunt, uncle, friend, neighbor, teacher, priest...

The celebration of the Remembrance of All the Faithful Departed leads us to two thoughts: REMEMBRANCE and HOPE for a meeting in the Father's House.

“It is an important duty of ours to pray for the dead because although they may have died in grace and in friendship with God, they may still be in need of a last purification in order to enter into the joy of heaven” said St. John Paul II less than two years before his death.

Prayers for the Deceased remind us that we are not separate from them because we are connected by spiritual communion and the communion of saints. Spiritual communion works both ways: we, the living, can offer our prayers for the dead who are in purgatory. At the same time, however, those who have already attained salvation intercede for us, “confirming us in holiness”. Praying for the Dead is also beneficial to us as we prepare for our passing from this life to the next.

We pray for the dead not only in our personal prayers, but also through Mass offerings. Then we join the celebration of Christ's death and resurrection. Masses for the dead are one of the forms of help we can give to souls in purgatory.

Throughout November we ask you to join us spiritually by common PRAYER for the DEAD (Wypominki), in remembrance of their eternity: eternal peace and with those whom God has taken to Himself. May our prayers flow to heaven with the great desire that human weakness and sin will be overcome by God's mercy.

As in previous years, EVERY DAY throughout November, all the prayers and intentions sent to us will be remembered in MASSES and DEVOTIONS conducted by the Franciscans for all the Deceased, whose names have been included on the enclosed card. By this we will be asking for great graces for our beloved relatives who have gone before us.

At the same time, we ask you for your OFFERING which will help the Franciscans in their evangelization.

May Mary, Queen of Heaven and Earth, assist us in our prayers for our beloved departed and bring them quickly to eternal glory.

May God reward your good deeds, which you do for your beloved living and deceased.

With prayer and gratitude, we cordially greet you and look forward to your reply.
